

STAGE HANDS

The Center for Rural Development, located in Somerset, Kentucky, invites applications for temporary, part-time stage hands in the theatre department. The Center is a national model for economic development in rural areas, serving a forty-two county service area of Southern and Eastern Kentucky with a wide array of programs.

Dedicated, dependable and hard working individuals are needed to assist in all areas of pre-show, performance and post-show duties. Stage hands are scheduled on an as-needed show-by-show basis; the position(s) are non-exempt with variable hours. The work varies and is often physical. The Center offers a competitive wage and an opportunity to experience live performances from a unique backstage view. The position(s) retain job specific accountability and report to the Associate Director of Arts and Culture.

Minimum qualifications: Must be at least 18 years old to apply. A High School Diploma or equivalent. Experience is preferred, especially in theatrical or concert productions. Carpentry, electrical, technical, mechanical, sound and lighting skills are all a plus, but not required. Individuals must possess excellent communication and interpersonal skills. The successful applicant must have the ability to be a self-starter, dependable, and work well independently.

The Center is an equal opportunity institution. Interested applicants may apply online at www.centertech.com/jobs.

The Center for Rural Development
Stage Hands